

Q88 LLC Embraces Product Management

Nov 1st, 2018

Q88LLC expands its expertise in the shipping industry by having dedicated Product Management team assigned to each product, Q88VMS | Q88Dry | Q88.Com | Q88 Position List | Milbros.

According to Gabriel Reiter Q88VMS Product Manager:

“As Q88’s line of products grows and complexity, we want to maintain a close pulse on how we are doing, what we need to improve on and what our future plans should be. At Q88 LLC we believe Product Management will allow us to achieve these goals by having a permanent set of eyes on every product.”

Moreover, he added that:

“The Product Manager’s role will:

- Ensure we constantly monitor the health and performance of our products
- Open up another channel of communication with our customers
- Provide a clear strategy for the products
- Keep the products focused, moving forward toward their vision”
